Singleton Reorganizes And Expands

BY CHERYL BROWN

Pastor Chuck Singleton

Pastor Chuck Singleton made a bold move and resigned as pastor of the area's largest church, and has asked all his staff to follow suit. The resignations are to be effective, March 9, 1994. That was last week. This week Singleton became the new pastor of Loveland and is moving ahead with a plan that has people talking all over the Inland Empire.

It is because of the size of the church, that the re-organization is necessary. Loveland has a membership of approximately 10,000. Singleton said the leadership has expanded and will continue so that everyone is more included in the ministry. In the move, the leadership has expanded from 10 Elders to 25 Elders, 4 Trustees to a 12 member board and the Deacon Board will be expanded from 60 to 100 in June.

Responding to vicious rumors circulating about the move, Singleton told Black Voice, "There is not misbehavior on anyone's part, we are restructuring."

Terry Starks, Chairman of the Elder Board and Vice President of the Board of Directors said, "He was led of the Lord to submit his resignation to (1) demonstrate, as staff, their trust in the Lord. (2) To have a time of spiritual renewal not look for a pay check and (3) To look at the church's mission statement and where the Lord would have them to go."

Of the restructuring, Charlyn Singleton, wife and first lady said, "God is doing a new work at Loveland. He is giving us a fresh anointing and the resignations are just a public demonstration of our inner trust in him."

"There is no interruption of the ministry, paychecks or anything," said Singleton. By the March 9, date everything will be restructured and the expanded plan will be in place.

"The expanded leadership will be in the hands of the people, said Starks. Everyone is an owner and a participant."

Singleton says, it is a spiritu-

BLACK MEN'S CONFERENCE

First Black Men's Conference Held In Inland Empire

On February 3rd thru 5th an historic event took place in the Inland Empire. The First of many "Black Men Conferences" was held at Temple Missionary Baptist Church, where Rev. Ray Turner is the Pastor. The conference was a joint effort, put on by Temple Baptist, Pastor Phillip Powell and San Bernardino Christian Center; Pastor Roy Harris and Tabernacle Church; and Pastor Joshua Beckley and Ecclesia Christian Fellowship.

The theme of this conference was "The Black Male - An Endangered Species." The focus of the conference was to challenge Black Men about their leadership roles, in their homes, communities and churches.

Various workshops were held for men ages 12 and up, that dealt with issues such as "Brother's respect your sister," "Peer pressure," "How to raise your parents," "The single advantage," "Husbands love your wives," "Holy husbands," and "Who am I?"

The general sessions which were open to the public were outstanding and inspiring. On Thursday night, Bishop C.E. Simmons, California State Bishop for Mt. Calvary Holiness Church spoke on "Foundations Do Count." Friday night

Bishop Alfred Owens, pastor of the Mt. Calvary Holy Church of Washington D.C.; also the pastor who had his first Black Men's Conference in 1993, and over 400 Black men attended, spoke on the subject of "A Few Good Men." Saturday morning, Bishop Owens closed the conference with a powerful message entitled, "The Favor of God." The conference attendance was close to 100 men, and was truly an unexpected success.

We look forward to many other events such as these to help and strengthen the Black family. We welcome other churches to join us in this effort.

Dr. Ben-Jochannan And Dr. Clarke Come To Claremont

Dr. Yosef A.A. Ben-Jochannan and Dr. John Henrik Clarke, two legendary historians of African people, will be honored by a Southern California coalition of collegiate and community representatives on Feb. 19th.

The mzee, or senior elder, ceremony will begin at 4 p.m. at Bridges Auditorium in Claremont. The auditorium is located at the Claremont Colleges, between Fourth and Sixth Streets on College Way and east of Indian Hill Boulevard.

Tickets are $10. They may be purchased at the door or by calling Cloyed Miller, Inland Empire, 909-949-0375; Izsake Nkrumah, Los Angeles, 213-295-3963, or Max Viltz, Long Beach, 310-437-7139. Tickets will also be sold at Eso Won Books, Los Angeles; Black/Latino Book Center, Pasadena; The Nile Garden and Zahra's, Pomona; Our Learning Tree and Haasan's Accessories, San Bernardino/Rialto; and Indigo Books, Riverside.

Clarke and Ben-Jochannan, affectionately known as Dr. Ben, are considered among the world's top four Black historians, along with John Hope Franklin and Ivan Van Sertima. The two men have devoted nearly 60 years to researching, documenting and writing on the history, culture and contributions of people of African ancestry to world civilizations.

The mzee ceremony is a cooperative venture co-sponsored by the Claremont Colleges Intercollegiate Office of Black Student Affairs and the Mzee Coalition. The coalition includes several community based, Africentric, Pan-African organizations. Among these are The Fathers, Inland Empire; Afrikan Minds United, Los Angeles; Afrikan Study Group, Long Beach; Safe In My Brothers' Arms (SIMBA) and Sisters in Simba, Inland Valley; Maat Foundation, San Bernardino; Wa'Set Study Group and the Pomona Alliance of Black School Educators, Pomona; and the Afrikan Holocaust and The Trust, West Covina.

According to organizers, the mzee ceremony will become an annual event to allow African-Americans an opportunity to recognize and honor senior elders for their contributions to the world African community.

Dr. Ben and Dr. Clarke are among the senior elders from the Age of Sacrifice, a period dating from the early 1900s to the mid 1950s. This was an era when Africentric thought, research and activities were not commonplace and were discouraged by mainstream society, sometimes in violent and politically repressive ways. Others from this era include W.E.B. DuBois, Marcus Garvey, Mary McLeod Bethune, Paul Robeson, Vernon Johns and Marian Anderson.

Dr. Ben, a Falashan Jew born in Ethiopia, is the only Black Egyptologist who digs and researches in the Nile Valley. He has been credited for exposing the cultural coverup on the indigenous African origins of the great Kemetic or Egyptian civilization. He received his early education in Brazil, St. Croix and Puerto Rico. He holds a bachelor degree in civil engineering, a law degree and two Ph.Ds in cultural anthropology and Moorish history.

Community Support Grows For Dismissed Teachers

By Cheryl Brown

No longer are parents the only ones objecting to the goings on at Rio Vista School, located in the Westside community of San Bernardino. Now the church and community members are vowing to support the two dismissed teachers and find out why Chapter I students are not expected to learn. Some insiders are even going so far as to say, because of continual verbal and written altercations between the three Black teachers, (all three accused), and the principal, Carolyn Livingston, that someone set up the teachers.

Black teachers and Dr. LeMar Foster, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, have also voiced concern about the situation. Dr. Foster, said he will not rest until he gets some answers. Foster is the pastor of both the accused teachers and, "every Wednesday, James comes to prayer meeting and always, without fail, asks for prayer for the children at the school. Many times it is for a specific child and the general problems of the school."

"She (James) was given two hours to get her belongings together and get out or the police would be called," said Harriet Moore, a former teacher at Rio Vista and a recent substitute teacher at that school who said she was concerned, about the atmosphere. "People came to me with issues which showed a lack of moral," she said. Foster asks what happened to the constitutional right of being innocent until proven guilty. "They didn't know until the day of their dismissal that they were under investigation," he said.

Willie Clark, NAACP President, said "this brings to mind the desegregation court order the district remains under and, because of a series of events, we may ask the Judge to look at what is happening in the district. It seems there are fewer Black teachers now and there are no Black male principals and many qualified Blacks are being told they are not qualified. One male with a Ph.D. was released because he couldn't teach 6th grade.

Another Ph.D., female was told she wasn't qualified to be a principal, even though she was a principal in another school district. Now we hear about upstanding veteran teachers being dismissed for cheating on their student's (standardized) tests. We cannot sit by and allow this to continue to happen to Black people," said Clark.

Harry Rhubottom, well known, community person said, "I know Willie James and Robbie Jordan, (the accused teachers). You cannot make me believe these two women did anything wrong." Rheubottom said, "it is too bad things are going backwards. I thought we had overcome this. We tell people to get an education and what happens when they get it; if they are Black they still are not viewed as qualified."

Moore agreed, she said, "experienced teachers are seen as enemies. Many times we have been used as resources to help other teachers and administrators get through school only

Two Female Attorneys Open Office In San Bernardino

Hermin A. Dowe

San Bernardino has a new law office. It is unique because both attorneys are female.

Hermin A. Dowe, a Registered Nurse, with over 20 years experience was born in Jamaica. After practicing in Jamaica, London, Norway and other states, she relocated to California.

In 1981, she attended law school, at Western State University in Fullerton. She graduated in May of 1989 and was admitted to the most difficult Bar in the country in December of the same year.

Before opening her practice she worked as a Deputy District Attorney in Riverside, and was the in-house counsel for a major insurance company.

Opal D. Richards, was born in New York City but grew up in Lancaster, Massachusetts.

Richards attended Holy Cross College, and Clark University both in Massachusetts. In May of 1988 she graduated from Georgetown University Law Center in Washington D.C. She was admitted to the Virgin Islands Bar in January 1989 and to the California Bar in August 1992.

Her California experience includes associate with a personal injury law firm and for a time she was a solo practitioner in Riverside.

After studying the demographics of the area the pair decided to locate in downtown San Bernardino.

Dowe's areas of specialization are: Criminal Law, Personal Injury and Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. Richards concentrates on Family Law and Wills.

The two want to provide high quality legal service at an affordable cost, to educate the community about their legal rights and responsibilities and to serve as positive role models for the youth. Their address is 696 North D Suite 1. (909) 885-1219.

Aularae Comes To Inland Empire

Aularale Skin Care and Cosmetics have finally come to the Inland Empire. Now, you too can enjoy having them without having to travel to northern California to purchase them. Most likely, you have seen these products before. At most of the large conventions and conferences throughout the United States, Aularale consultants demonstrate these products, along with many other vendors.

Aularale has over 100 quality beauty items. Most people like them because their foundations do not rub off easily. How many times have you ruined a nice dress, hugged someone and left your makeup on them or touched an important paper and left your makeup on it? That's disgusting, isn't it? Our skin care products are Aloe Vera based and designed for the most sensitive skin.

Aularale Cosmetics is a minority-owned and operated, direct sales company which is based in College Park, Georgia, a suburb of Atlanta, Georgia. The company was started in 1984 and is owned and operated by a husband and wife team, Al and Joanne Trawick. It was not easy to get started; however, today their sales force has grown from zero to over 1500 consultants. Their liquid foundation is water-based, fragrance-free, matches your skin color, and will not rub off easily on your hands and clothes. Our Aloe Vera based skin care products were formulated for all types of skin: oily, dry, normal or combinations.

Please feel free to call me at: (909) 685-2999 for a complimentary demonstration. You will not be pressured to buy. I am available to come to your home or you can come to my home. (See my ad on page A-5).

Presently, there is no distributors or consultants in Southern California. The field is wide open with many opportunities for anyone interested in starting their own business. For as little as $99.00, $180.00 or $350.00, you can begin. Distributorships are available for $1500.00. There are no territorial boundaries. You can develop your own customers anywhere in the United States. ## You May Be Eligible For Free Prescriptions

Prescription drugs are expensive, but a reality for the average senior citizen who needs 10 to 20 prescriptions filled per year (General Accounting Office).

To help make these important medications available to those who need help, 31 pharmaceutical manufacturers offer prescriptions free of charge through indigent patient programs.

Bristol-Myers Squibb for instance, offers heart and cancer medications; Eli Lilly and Co. offers antibiotics, antidiabetics and insulin products; and Pfizer Pharmaceuticals offers oral diabetic and hypertension medications, among others.

Those in need must meet the manufacturer's eligibility guidelines in order to receive the medications. Eligibility guidelines can require that beneficiaries are on a fixed income, not enrolled in an HMO, or not Medical recipients. In some cases, the eligibility guidelines are determined by the beneficiary's physician. Though some manufacturers place quantity limits on recipients, there are no age limits. All manufacturers require the cooperation of the patient's physician to process the request.

If you are having difficulty affording medications, you may be eligible to receive help. Make sure to consult your physician's office, local Office on Aging or HICAP at (800)273-4227 for additional questions.

HICAP (Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program) provides free one-on-one Medicare counseling to Medicare beneficiaries. The program is funded by the California Department on Aging and does not sell, endorse or recommend any insurance.

The Dose Makes The Poison

Our Bodies

DEAR LEVISTER: Are the foods we eat safe? What about all those pesticides? A concerned parent.

DEAR CONCERNED: The central principal of toxicology is that "the dose makes the poison." To put it another way: 2 aspirins will relieve your headache and 200 aspirins will kill you.

When considering the safety of a pesticide the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) considers its toxicity, i.e. the type of adverse affects it causes in laboratory animals. In addition, it considers dietary exposures, i.e. the amount people are likely to ingest.

For non-cancer causing chemicals, the highest level of pesticide intake considered safe for everyone from children to the elderly is 1/100 of the largest dose that produces no adverse affects, such as nerve damage and birth defects in animal tests.

When cancer potential exists this is the issue and the EPA calculates the level of intake expected to cause no more than one case of cancer per 1 million people. When regulators speak of "negligible risk," this is what they mean. On the average this amount is roughly 1/400 of the dose that produces tumors in laboratory animals.

Strictly speaking, the residue (material left) tolerances that the EPA uses to regulate agriculture pesticides are not based on these cutoffs. Instead, a tolerance is the amount of pesticide that might reach consumers when a farmer uses the highest dose needed to control pests. However, the EPA often prohibits the use of a pesticide on food crop if the tolerance exceeds acceptable levels of daily intake for humans.

Tolerance for pesticide residue ranges from 0.2 to 100 parts per million (ppm). To put this unit of measure into perspective, for example, 1 ppm of the total books in the Library of Congress, which keeps every book ever published in the United States, is approximately 28 books. Given that pesticide tolerances are set far below the dose that are harmful in animals, most toxicologists do not believe that synthetic pesticides pose a significant risk to human health.

In addition, residue monitoring is done as close to the farm as possible. The products undergo several warnings before they reach your home.

Remember, more than 90% of residues that may remain can be removed by washing your vegetables in plain water and either peeling it (especially if there is a waxy coating) or using a vegetable scrubber. The outer leaves of green, leafy vegetables should be discarded.

Dr. Levister welcomes reader mail concerning their body but regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters. Your letters will be incorporated into the column as space permits. You may direct your letters to Dr. Levister in care of Voice News, P O Box 1581, Riverside, CA 92502.

MVUSD Begins Process Of Strategic Planning

At the January 4, 1994, meeting of the Moreno Valley Unified School District Board of Education, the Board agreed to begin a process of strategic planning using an outside facilitator and the Cambridge Instrument.

Strategic planning concentrates a school district's efforts and resources on goals which have broad support in the school system and the community. Strategic planning is a team effort, a process for determining how to use the time and resources available to the school system to get the system where its constituents (parents, students, community, teachers, classified staff, administration, and Board of Education) want it to be.

There are a number of benefits of the strategic planning process. The beliefs and mission statement of the school system are clearly defined for employees and the community. The resources and efforts of the school system are focused on clearly stated objectives. The process involves large numbers of educators and citizens which builds commitments to the system's objectives. The process models participatory leadership. Leaders at all levels have clearly defined roles in carrying out the system's objectives.

Moreno Valley Unified is instituting this process by selecting a pre-planning team to collect and prepare relevant data to be presented to the planning team for its consideration. The next step is to select the planning team. The planning team will be a microcosm of the school district and the community. While it must be small enough to be manageable, it must be constructed carefully in order to involve representation from the many facets of the school district and the community. The most appropriate manner in which to select the planning team is under discussion. Again, the goal is to ensure that all constituents are represented.

The planning team bases its work on 1) what its members hold in common-the beliefs that define the school systems and 2) the school system's reason for being - its mission. The team's first step is a frank, internal appraisal of where the system is. The team then identifies outside factors that affect the systems, such as demographics, the economy, availability of personnel, and advancements in technology (external analysis). Weighing where the system is and how it is affect the systems such demographics, the economy, availability of personnel, and advancements in technology (external analysis). Weighing where the system is and how it is affected by outside factors, the team sets down "objectives" for where the system wants to be and then plans "strategies" for getting there. This will be the undertaking of the first planning session.

These objectives and strategies are communicated to all audiences in the school system and in the community. "Action teams" are then developed. Their role is to hammer out how each strategy can best be achieved, and to present their "action plans" to the planning team for acceptance. In addition to presenting the action plans at the second planning session, it will be determined which action plans should be included in the overall strategic plan. The entire strategic plan is reviewed for revisions, a format for presentation is determined, and a recommended schedule for implementation is constructed. Once the completed strategic plan is adopted by the Board of Education, the completion of each action plan becomes the responsibility of a specific administrator.

Strategic planning is a continuous process. The initial plan will cover a five-year period. Updates will be conducted annually. This update guarantees a continuous commitment to a developing, operational strategic plan rather than just another document. Furthermore, it provides a realistic refinement of the original plan which will assure acceptance and implementation by the entire organization. In each annual update, the planning team will review progress, refine the plan if and as necessary, and add another year so the revised plan addresses a five-year period, as did the original plan.

The first Strategic Planning Session for Moreno Valley Unified School District is scheduled for March 24-26, 1994. The pre-planning team has already started to meet. The facilitator for the Strategic Planning Session is Larry Huggins, Cambridge Senior Associate. Mr. Huggins was in the district on February 1 for an entire day, meeting with two members of the Board, administration, the pre-planning team, and representatives of the employee associations. Mr. Huggins made a presentation regarding strategic planning at the Board of Education Meeting held on February 1, 1994 at 6:30 p.m. This presentation was followed by a meeting with interested parents and community members.

Mrs. Farrakhan Received By President Rawlings

Mrs. Khadijah Farrakhan, wife of the Honorable Louis Farrakhan, leader of the Nation of Islam, who is currently in Ghana on a thirty day visit with her son Joshua, was received by President Jerry John Rawlings of the Fourth Republic of Ghana. Accompanying Mrs. Farrakhan was Minister Akbar Muhammad, Director of the Nation of Islam Information Center in Ghana, and his wife Maryam Muhammad.

Mrs. Farrakhan presented a letter from Minister Farrakhan extending an invitation to President Rawlings to open the Nation of Islam's Saviour's Day Convention in October 1994 that will take place in Accra. President Rawlings gladly accepted and said that he would be honored to preside over the opening ceremonies to what he considered an important conference bringing Africans and Africans from the Diaspora together.

Minister Akbar Muhammad, Minister Farrakhan's International Representative, explained the importance of the conference and the number of brothers and sisters that they expect from around the world. According to Minister Akbar, 1,400 brothers and sisters have already signed up for travel to Ghana. He also indicated that Ghana Officials feel that the maximum number of travelers should be 3,000.

President Rawlings, in his meeting with Mrs. Farrakhan, also thanked the Nation of Islam for the generous donation of medical equipment and supplies that were officially turned over to Mrs. Margaret Clark Kwasi, Deputy Minister of Health. The medical equipment was made available by the efforts of Mosque No.11 in Boston, Massachusetts. The medical equipment, which was valued at $122,000 was secured during Minister Akbar's recent tour to eighteen cities in the U.S., preparing brothers and sisters for the Saviour's Day Convention in Ghana.

Mrs. Farrakhan also had the opportunity to meet and travel with Mrs. Maryam Sankara, wife of the late Head of State to Burkina Faso, Thomas Sankara. Mrs. Sankara was also on a visit to Ghana with her two children. For additional information about the Nation of Islam's Saviour's Day Convention in Ghana, call (314) 962-2117.

Akbar Muhammad addresses news conference. To the left is Margaret Clarke Kwesi, the Deputy Minister of Health, and Joshua Farrakhan, the son of the Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan.

President J.J. Rawlings receives letter from Mrs. Khadijah Farrakhan, wife of Minister Louis Farrakhan.

WINDOW SHOPPIN'
guide to new black music
BY BILLY JOHNSON JR.

UMC's - Ill Demonic Clique - Wild Pitch - Ill Demonic Clique is not my choice of a good album title, but besides that, the product is cool. I have to admit to being a little gassed up on the UMCs because "Blue Cheese" and "One To Grow On" off their debut album was kinda slammin'. So you can say my anticipation was thick. Unfortunately, only two cuts on Ill... hit me as hard as "Blue Cheese:" "Hit The Track" and "Whoa Now."

Don't get me wrong, I can listen to the whole album without fast forwarding, I was just expecting more - you know, it's like a Snoop Dogg anticipation thing. It's "All Good," just not as good as you were expecting.

These two Staten Island brothas have their same fast paced rhyming skills that a few years ago could only be matched by Das Efx. But now that there are so many competitors with skills, the pressure is on.

"Time To Set It Straight," the first single off this album is not one of the album's favorites, so don't draw a conclusion based on this single. If you liked the fellas the last time, you'll still like them. They seem to have a few more rougher rhymes than the last time, but everything else is pretty much consistent.

US3 - Hands On The Torch - Blue Note Records - There have been a good few prominent hip hop jazz artists around, so here comes another one. More like Digable Planets than the Guru, US3 provides better music than raps. The first single "Cantaloup (Flip Fantasia)" was catchy with it's salsa like music and bongo drum beats. Here the lyrics seem to fit right in place. The three rappers London (Rahsaan, Kobie and Tukka Yoot) present several styles of rap from reggae to the mellower-plain-slow styles. The problem is, their lyrics are just mediocre; there are no memorable phrases or anything for the listeners to cling on to. The lyrics just go in one ear and out the other.

For all those "Cantaloup" fans, the album includes "Tukka Yoot's Riddim" a reggae ("Cantaloup" part two) with more of a sixties-do-the-jerk flair and "11 Long Years" ("Cantaloup" part three) another reggae flava-ed cut. While both of these are cool, my favorite is the one with the nicest sounding lyrics. "Just Another Bro" has a stronger hip hop beat, a story and the rhyme sounds significantly better than the rhymes on the rest. Here Rahsaan (who used to dance for Special Ed) stays away from the freestyle rhyming lyrics. On most of the other tracks, Rahsaan sounds like a mixture of Young MC and Money B, and to say the least, it is not impressive.

Houston, Showered With Trophies

BY JENNIFER BOWLES
ASSOCIATED PRESS WRITER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Whitney Houston was showered with trophies at the 21st annual American Music Awards, but she couldn't help showing off another prize.

She swept on stage in a white dress holding her 11-month-old daughter, Bobbi Christina, when she accepted one of the eight awards she received Monday night.

"These don't even compare to my husband and my child," she said backstage, her arms wrapped around her husband, singer Bobby Brown. "Love and marriage, it has made me grow - I'm just filled with so much joy."

Brown lost his only nomination of the night, as favorite male soul-R&B artist, to Luther Vandross.

Other winners included

Eric Clapton, Toni Braxton, Kenny G, Dr. Dre, Aerosmith, Stone Temple Pilots, Alan Jackson, Garth Brooks, Reba McEntire, who hosted, John Michael Montgomery and Alabama.

The awards were based on votes by a national sampling of 20,000 music buyers.

Miss Houston was named favorite pop-rock and soul-R&B female artist. Her version of the Dolly Parton torch song "I Will Always Love You" was favorite pop-rock and soul-R&B single.

The movie soundtrack from "The Bodyguard," in which she starred with Kevin Costner, was named favorite album in the pop-rock, soul-rhythm & blues and adult contemporary categories.

She lost only to Kenny G as favorite artist in the adult contemporary category.

Miss Houston also received the Award of Merit for "outstanding contributions to the musical entertainment of the American public." She wiped her eyes as Stevie Wonder presented the trophy.

Previous winners include Bing Crosby, Berry Gordy Jr., Irving Berlin and Michael Jackson, who lost out to Eric Clapton this year as pop-rock's favorite male artist.

The trophies raised Miss Houston's career American Music Award total to 19, for a tie with Kenny Rogers.

Double winners included Braxton as favorite new artist in soul-R&B and adult contemporary categories; Dr. Dre as favorite artist and new artist in rap-hip hop; veteran rockers Aerosmith as favorite pop-rock band and heavy metal-hard rock artist; Stone Temple Pilots for both new pop-rock and heavy metal-hard rock artist; and Alan Jackson, whose "Chattahoochee" was the favorite country single and "A Lot About Livin' (And a Little 'Bout Love)" took the country album title.

Other country winners included Brooks as favorite male artist, McEntire as female artist and Montgomery as new artist.

Alabama collected its 17th AMA trophy as it picked up the honor for favorite country band, duo or group.

The show paid tribute to Diana Ross, Frank Sinatra and The Beatles. Performers included Houston, Michael Bolton, Rod Stewart, who also received the International Artist Award, and rapper Snoop Doggy Dogg.

Attorney Demand's Return Of Jackson's Medical Records

Michael Jackson's attorney wants prosecutors to return medical records handed over for use in a child molestation probe that is continuing.

At issue is whether the records are privileged and whether the singer waived that privilege.

A physician told prosecutors that Jackson had agreed to allow the review, said Lauren Weis, a deputy district attorney.

"He can no longer claim any expectation of privacy," Weis said.

But attorney Steve Cochran argued that any waiver was only temporary.

The request was made this week before Superior Court Judge Richard Neidorf, who called it an unusual move because it seeks the return of potential evidence when criminal charges haven't been filed, the Los Angeles Daily Journal reported.

"In 22 years in the criminal justice system, I've never seen one like this," Neidorf said at the Tuesday hearing.

Cochran said nothing in the law prevents him from trying to regain the medical records before a criminal filing might occur, the legal newspaper reported Wednesday.

Jackson's lead attorney, Howard Weitzman, did not immediately return telephone calls today.

Los Angeles and Santa Barbara county authorities have been investigating child molestation allegations against Jackson since August. They have examined medical records and taken pictures of the singer's genitals, reportedly for comparison with descriptions given by a boy who said he was molested.

Last month, Jackson reached a reported multimillion dollar settlement in a civil lawsuit brought by the 14-year-old. Jackson has denied any wrongdoing.

On Tuesday, prosecutors opposed Cochran's request for the return of medical records provided by Dr. Arnold Klein, Jackson's dermatologist.

Rather than granting a wholesale turnover, Neidorf said he would review the records privately and rule which should be returned. However, he postponed a ruling for 15 days to allow Jackson's attorney time to appeal.

CSUSB And UCR Open New Activities Center With Wins

BY LELAND STEIN
SPORTS EDITOR

NCAA champs beaten, as Fife, Jackson and Pugh lead the way for UCR.

RIVERSIDE: With all the pageantry surrounding the first intercollegiate game played at the newly constructed Student Recreation Center on the campus of UC Riverside, the weekend being homecoming and also the 40th birthday of the university, the contest between UCR and Cal State Bakersfield was the crowning glory.

UCR erased the memory of seven consecutive losses to the defending NCAA Division II Champions, Bakersfield, holding on for a 61-56 victory before 2,455 vocal and enthusiastic supporters who had the new Center rock 'n'.

"I really like it (the new arena). . . this place is great to play in," said UCR's 6-foot-11 center, Bob Fife. "I hope people liked it (the crowd reaction) and let us continue to play here."

Added freshman point guard Chris Jackson, who came on in relief of foul strapped senior Marcellus Smith, and converted key free throws down the stretch: "It's our new home and we wanted to break it in with a good win."

Ah. . . the win was indeed good.

The win was good enough to vault the Highlanders into first place in the California Collegiate Athletic Association Conference (6-2 in the CCAA, 15-6 overall). Bakersfield is still the team to beat, only one-half game back (5-2, 17-4) after this loss.

"It's a great win for us," said UCR coach John Masi. "We would play Bakersfield anywhere and anytime. It's always a great game."

Since UCR has already played - and lost - Bakersfield at home and away, the only way they will meet again this season is in the NCAA tournament.

UCR senior forward, Derick Pugh, had a feeling it was going to be a different outcome saying: "They have been winning all the close games with us, but I had a feeling we would get it done tonight."

The Roadrunners came close to extending their winning streak over UCR, with a furious second half blitz. The Highlanders held a 32-20 half time advantage, but saw Bakersfield pull even at 54-54, with 50 seconds remaining in the game.

From there the new kid on the block, Jackson, in the new arena, took over. He drove the lane and was fouled, canning one charity throw, to give UCR a 55-54 lead. And soon after with only 18 seconds left, Jackson was again fouled on a drive. This time the 50% free throw shooter made both under pressure, upping the lead to 59-

Chris Jackson

Bob Fife

54.

"Coach always tells us the time (when you'll be needed) will come," said Jackson. "I wasn't thinking about missing (on the crucial free throws), I was only thinking about winning."

With his clutch effort, Jackson won over his teammates, who were worried about losing Smith to foul trouble.

"I was thinking, 'We can't afford to lose Smith in a game like this, he's our spirit and leader,' but, Jackson our freshman did a great job out there," said Masi.

Added Fife: "I was worried when Cell (Marcellus) fouled out, but Jackson did what he had to do to help us win."

Marcellus Smith

Derick Pugh

Jackson wasn't the only one to enact last minute heroics, Fife got defensive in the final minute of the game, blocking three roadrunner shot attempts. He also was the game's high scorer, getting 15 rebounds and 23 points. Pugh chipped in with tough defense and 11 points.

Young and Few are too much for UCR

BY LELAND STEIN
SPORTS EDITOR

Riverside: Sitting at court-side you can hear Cal State San Bernardino's second year coach, Luvina Beckley, cajoling her troops to execute and perform on offense. When play moves to the other end of the court, she can be heard urging defense and getting balance on the court.

Did Beckley's girls get the message? Ask UCR.

San Bernardino received Beckley's messages loud and clear, beating UCR 78-59. The victories (5-1 in the CCAA, 18-3) just keep on a coming for this smooth band of lady hoopsters. And their confidence just keeps on growing, too.

"We are going after the conference title," said super forward Chery'll Few, who starred at Riverside North. "I think this team can go a long way."

Added exciting guard Kim Young, who had the crowd roaring in approval after each of her highlight film moves: "I believe in this team and coach."

Young who led the Coyotes with 24 points, says she patterns her game after "the men". She also said she learns from watching and playing against the boys. Even stealing the spin move from Michael Jordan's repertoire.

Kim is worth the price of admission. She has court style and presence.

UCR kept the game respectable in the first, trailing 36-30 at half time. But, San Bernardino came out during the second half and built a 20 point lead by the 13:48 mark. The Coyotes never looked back as they maintained that lead the rest of the way.

UCR was hoping to use the emotion of homecoming and the new Center's opening, to obtain a measure of revenge. CSUSB had already blasted the Lady Highlanders by 30 points in a conference game earlier in the season.

The driving force behind San Bernardino's success is Coach Beckley.

Assistant coach, John Hill, who piloted Rubidoux to league title after league title, said this about her: "She has proven herself to be a winner. She really works the girls, and she is continually growing as a coach."

Not only does Beckley care about and coach the girls to new heights, she has the ladies focused on post basketball objectives, too.

"I want to be a coach when I graduate," noted Few, who scored 23 points. "There is so much in coaching that compares to life. You can look at life as a big game, and you have to play hard at it if you want to win or be a winner."

Well, Beckley's girls are winners, as evident by their outstanding record. They play basketball hard and aggressive, but with style and speed.

If Young, Few, Felice Logan, Mary Lott and Tammie Beckley (Luvina's sister) continue to hear Coach Beckley's messages loud and clear, they more than likely will experience post season success in the NCAA tournament and in life.

to find that we are not respected. Black people have to get the same education, pass the same tests, yet we are not a part of the vision (a district objective)."

Willie Garrett, local community member said, "we are going all the way with these teachers."

Reportedly, the teachers have had many problems with the principal. They have been teachers for 26 and 30 years, respectively. The principal, in her second year, has consistently tried to change their teaching methods and styles. Both teachers have been successful with students during their long careers and continued to do what was proven rather than experiment with new methods which have not been proven. Insiders say this angered Livingston, and on many occasions three of the Black veteran teachers were treated in disrespectful ly. Livingston disagrees. She feels she has a good relationship with the community, said Barbara Spears-Kidd, spokesperson for the school district.

"They have always been outspoken about things which are not in the best interest of children," said Foster. Two teachers, Jordan and James were dismissed, in January. There was not enough evidence to get rid of the third teacher, Annie Webster, who's children were also re-tested, according to published reports.

"Moore said that this is a trend, People of African-American heritage are not appreciated. "It goes deeper than just sensitivity, there is no nurturing." One example, she stated, was a White man came in the district as a substitute teacher. His principal took him to board meetings, gave him opportunities, and soon he became a teacher. He was further nurtured and soon became an elementary principal. Now in just a short time, he is the principal of a middle school. They nurtured their own and we have no one in those positions to do that.

Many people expressed a concern that when and if a Black person is placed in an administrative position they place people who are afraid to help other Blacks or they feel so bad about being Black they treat other Blacks worse than Whites do.

In an article published last Saturday in the Sun, Livingston allegedly said, after reviewing the scores in June, she noticed they were much higher than expected of Chapter I students who need special attention. "They usually get about 30 percent of the answers right"....This seems to contradict the statement given by Barbara Spears-Kidd, "The school district is very interested in the education of all their students. We sincerely want all of our students to achieve to be their very best." Chapter I students are not expected to do anymore than 30 percent. An unidentified source said "it is because the Chapter I money comes if the kids are kept in the 30 percentile."

Parents and community members have long felt that minority children are not expected to learn, so they are not being taught and since there are so few Black teachers, the students never leave Chapter I.

According to the Sun, Livingston said the tip off to the teachers cheating was the high number of eraser marks made in the test books. Teachers say it was impossible. Insiders can name many of the proctors which were sent to classrooms. However, Livingston doesn't remember if any proctors were sent. (Sun 2/5/94) Black Voice has obtained names of four proctors, Lee Jago, Pam Miller, Kathy Freeman and Robbie Sheldon. According to a source, the proctor procedure if used, will keep everyone straight. The teacher collects the tests, counts them and either puts them away for the next day in a cabinet or gives them to the resource teacher. Upon completion of the week long test they are checked, counted and sent to the resource room. That teacher then counts them and checks for unnecessary marks that will throw the answers off in the electronic scanner. They are bundled, tied, and both the resource teacher and the proctor sign off on them. With that standard procedure, how could the teachers cheat?

Dr. Foster, voices this as a point of concern as well. He asked the same question and said the charge is ridiculous. Time would not permit these teachers to do this.

It is thought, either the students erased, then guessed the answer, or that they knew the answers, or someone tried to set up these teachers. Black Voice has allegedly heard one child in question was a recent immigrant and did not know English very well. He allegedly scored in the 90 percentile. "If the teacher was going to change the test, why would she change the answers of someone who had not mastered the language," said the source. "It seems they didn't look to see the children's names or they would not have changed their test." After the students took the test and it was sent to the test center, we heard allegedly that it (the test) was sent back to the school because all the bubbles were not filled in.

"I am concerned that the principal waited 4 months to re-test the students, and then used this as a basis to ruin the reputations of these dedicated teachers," said Foster.

Moore said, "There are proctors who know they were there, ask the teachers."

Charles Seymour, former candidate for the Board of Trustees, said he was still concerned with the locked bathroom issue. Spears-Kidd said the bathrooms were closed for safety reasons. Seymour says it is for storage reasons. Spears-Kidd confirmed the earthquake preparedness kits are stored in one of the bathrooms. The 700 students do have access to four sets of bathrooms.

On January 20, 1994 the Black Voice uncovered many discrepancies at the school and published them. Changes have been made since that report came out. In checking the former accusations we found a directive was issued that only certificated teachers should take substitute places in the classroom. Formerly instructional aides were used in place of substitute teachers when needed. Recently one aide was used as a teacher for a full day in the classroom. Sick children are no longer sleeping on the floor in the office, the cot was returned. The issue of the secretary being authorized to administer medicine was allowed because she had been in-serviced by the school nurse. The reason Spears-Kidd gave for the secretary administering medicine was, "the former health aide was not effective, and the secretary had to take over that duty. That is why students had to go through her (the secretary)."

An unidentified source said they would never let the Health Aide who is also Black do anything. She was never allowed to weigh the children at the time appointed by the district. She wasn't even allowed to take sick children home, even though this is all a part of the job description." The aide was then blamed for the child she never saw, who ended up spending five days in the hospital because the secretary didn't feel she was sick enough. The child had a serious asthma attack. The parents were not notified. But according to Spears-Kidd the Health Aide was not effective.

"I will be with members of my congregation at the Board meeting on next Tuesday at 5 p.m. I'm tired of the unfair policies, I'm tired of everything we fought for in the civil rights struggle being eroded away and I want some answers. I won't be satisfied until I get some," said Foster.

al matter, to submit ourselves to the Board. It shows a re-commitment and rededication to the work of the Lord.

First Lady Singleton said, "This is a sign of submission, can you (we) trust him (God) without a job. Trust that God, not man, will bring you back. It is an exercise in faith." They are fasting and praying for the new direction.

Of the rumors she gave the following, "The rumors we have been hearing are totally ridiculous, little, jealous and vicious.... I know my husband to be a man of God, anointed with a special call.... I believe people who spread rumors mean it for evil, but God will turn it around for good. My trust is in the living God."

Singleton is working on plans for the 22 acre site of the new church. The Hydraulic Plans which have held up the construction should be completed in May. This will open the door for ground breaking of the new church.

CIF Playoffs On The Horizon: Fohi And North Lead Pack

BY LELAND STEIN
SPORTS EDITOR

The time of year high school basketball followers have all been waiting for and anticipating is almost here. The California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Basketball Championships are edging closer and closer. But first, there is a small order of business that must be attended to - the conference titles.

Standing strong and out front among area contenders are, Fontana (22-1, 8-0) and Riverside North (22-0, 8-0). Close behind the big two are Corona (19-3, 8-0), Moreno Valley (15-7, 7-1), Riverside La Sierra (21-1, 13-0), Riverside Poly (15-9, 3-5), San Bernardino Cajon (20-3, 10-2) and San Bernardino Pacific (20-3, 11-1).

The lady basketballers are led by, North (21-2, 8-0), Fontana (18-4, 7-1), Perris (17-5, 7-1), San Bernardino (20-3, 11-1), Apple Valley (17-4, 6-2), and Victor Valley (18-4, 6-2).

Skip Kendall Claims Nike Inland Empire Open

Skip Kendall

Skip Kendall left the field in his tracks with a final round 65 after posting scores of 65-67 for a three round total of 197 to claim the win at the NIKE Inland Empire Open at Moreno Valley Ranch Golf Club and the winner's check of $36,000.

Kendall led by one stroke after the first and second round before extending his winning margin to six strokes on Sunday. A scheduled 72 hole event, the tournament was shortened to 54 holes when Friday's round was canceled due to heavy rain Thursday night and Friday morning.

The 29-year old resident of Oldsmar, FL, was a second alternate to get into the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am but made the decision to stay here.

"That sure was a good choice," beamed Kendall. "I would not have gotten in up there. I putted really well here, better than I have in a long time."

Following Saturday's second round, Kendall said he didn't think he'd feel any extra pressure going into the final round as the leader.

"It felt like I would have to stay aggressive and continue to putt well, and I was able to do that."

As he received his winner's check of $36,000, Kendall looked over to his caddie, who also happens to be his wife, Beth, and said "I know my wife wants to go to the mall right now, she sure deserves it."

Turning serious again, Kendall said "this course puts a premium on hitting the fairways, I was able to do that all week."

The inaugural NIKE Inland Empire Open was presented by Buick and was the first tour stop on the 1994 NIKE Tour. Following four weeks off, the NIKE Tour's next stop will be the NIKE Monterrey (Mexico) Open March 3rd - 6th.

Fontana has the look of a championship squad that can compete with the LA City and Orange County teams. Fontana led by Travon Carmichael, Brandon Ward, Rumala Griffin and Corey Benjamin, are standing atop the Citrus Belt League. The Lady Steelers are keeping pace with the men, and are led by Sharmayne Murphy, Deanna James and Talia Tiburzio.

North, the defending men's CIF Division 2AA champion, isn't very big, but, here they are 22-0 and in prime position to capture the Ivy League crown and earn a top seed in the playoffs. Keeping the Huskies' winning tradition alive are: Adam Kennedy, Brain Hooks, Chivo Anderson, Demond Jackson, Chris Claiborne and Rodger Walker. Add to the mix the return to form of injured center Ronald Hughes, North has a shot at a two-peat. The Lady Huskies, not to be outdone by the boys, are riding high on the arms and legs of Elizabeth Edmond, Sheila Frial, Shishawna Moore, Wynette Allen and Jeanine Horton.

La Sierra can hoop with anyone. Leading the charge are: Anthony Preyear, Tony Saldana and James Robinson.

Pacific's guns are: Carlos Smith, Chris Johnson, Ernie Burries, and Chana Mealey.

Cajon is powered by Bret Burnette, Torrey Jackson, Mar-ion Booker and Anthony Ross.

San Bernardino's girls are the class of the San Andreas League. Freshman La Cresha Flannigan leads the Cardinals. Lending strong support are LaTonya Kindle and Celeste Gude.

Poly hopes to surprise in the playoffs, with Randy Leaphart, Adam Hackworth and Dylan Pope.

Moreno Valley plans to ride the backs of Frank Clardy, Henry Mercadel and Demond Prior into the playoffs.

Are You Prepared?

Redlands Federal Bank is deeply concerned about the destruction and loss an earthquake can cause. The recent Northridge quake is a devastating reminder of how quickly tragedy can occur. While we realize that nothing can predict when disaster will strike, we know that preparedness is priceless. Taking the proper steps before disaster strikes can reduce the impact on you, your family and your home.

For a limited time, Redlands Federal Bank is offering a free earthquake preparedness guide to all Inland Empire residents. The guide includes tips on structural, exterior and interior reinforcements, family preparedness and other valuable information.
